YMCA Resident Camp Rules

I understand and agree that, if circumstances should require my son or daughter to return home from Bear Valley Y Camp before its conclusion, I will be responsible for picking my child up at the camp immediately.

I understand that any of the following circumstances could, at the reasonable discretion of the Camp Director, require my son/daughter to return home early.

A. The violation of any of the YMCA rules, which include:
   1. Alcohol or narcotics/drugs (including cigarettes) of any sort are forbidden on YMCA grounds or program sites.
   2. Sexual behavior or excessive display of affection that detracts from group participation are neither acceptable nor permitted.
   3. Inappropriate behavior is not acceptable.

B. The commission of a crime by my son/daughter or the arrest of my son/daughter, or the use of any weapon.

C. Any Illness or injury suffered by my son/daughter that would make their continuing on with camp ill advised.

I understand and agree to the above rules. Violation of these rules may result in the camper being sent home at the parent's expense, and no refund will be available.

Refund Policy

All deposits ($50/week) are non-refundable and non-transferable. In cases of homesickness, dismissal or voluntary withdrawal, there is no refund of fees. All cancellations or changes to registration must be submitted in writing. Any cancellation less than three weeks prior to the start of the registered session will result in a refund of 50% of the camp fees less the deposit. Cancellations with less than one-week notice will result in a refund of 25% of the camp fee less the deposit. If a camper does not show for a registered session without notice, there will be no refund.

A physician's written medical excuse is required to be considered for a full refund (less deposit). Requests for refunds with special circumstances must be submitted in writing for consideration.

All Changes made to registration must be submitted in writing.

Changes to camp sessions (within one week of the start of the camp session) may be subject to a $20 service fee.
